VP2VI, British Virgin Islands -update April 16

75200 QSOs after 5.6 days with 17000 unique callsigns.

As with every DXpedition, some couch potato people think they know better than those on site.

Let's put some things clear:

[1.] There was no reason why we only started 17/CW today, on the 6th day of operation (out of 17+ days). It just happened. Maybe other things seemed more important.

[2.] Conspiracy #1: We are blamed for "always beaming Europe". The truth is: Since the beginning, both Spiderbeams are pointing straight North, which is the middle between Europe and North America – to make a fair compromise. On 40m, 60m, 80m and 160m we don't have directional antennas at all.

[3.] Conspiracy #2: (So far) we have worked 60% Europe, 25% North America and 12% Asia. Some conspiracists say that we prevent or ignore American stations. The truth is: Most W/VEs callers are really loud, but there are only few of them calling!!

PJ6Y Saba Island DXpedition -update April 15

NCDXF is pleased to support another Youth on the Air DXpedition led by Gregg, W6IZT. PJ6Y will be going to Saba Island in October 2025. This group will consist of eight young operators under the age of 26, four who were part of the 3D2Y group. They will have many others operating in person and remote as well. See their website for details. NCDXF has also funded the "NexGenRiB2" stations that they will be using. These stations will be available to other DXpeditions under similar circumstances upon application and approval.

HD8G Galapagos Islands -update

We took more than 1 year planning this DXpedition. We had meetings every 2 weeks. Many colleagues had to cancel their participation for different reasons and new colleagues joined us. Now, we will be 25 passionate ops from 7 different countries, getting by language and culture differences aiming a single objective: one great DXpedition, unforgettable for all of us and unforgettable for all the ham community. Here, Ecuador, Brazil, USA, Russia, Latvia, Bosnia & Herzegovina and Serbia will be together, helping each other to do their best.

It is not easy at all to organize a big DXpedition with so many ops like this one. Some ops are more active than others, language is also an obstacle to live discussions, but the feeling is common to all of us and the chance to meet so distant colleagues that we would never have a chance to interact which make this a unique event to all of us. We have very experienced DXers and DXpeditioners in the team, but we also have brand new ones. That mixture reinforces the beauty of our hobby... an ever-lasting friendship! Andhra Pradesh State North Group, Hope Island AS-178P -update

The IOTA Directory currently lists Pillar Rock as the only island qualifying for the Andhra Pradesh State North group AS-178P. Recently a close investigation of the rock based on drone photos and videos has raised serious concerns about the safety of an IOTA radio operation. The central rock has a serious overhang, caused by erosion heavily carved in on the side facing away from the mainland. Advice from local fishermen is that the rock would be unsafe to climb, not because of the level of difficulty involved but because of the risk that a part of the upper half of the rock could give way and break without warning from any significant weight placed on it, simply because of its shape and the relatively brittle material it is made of. <https://www.dx-world.net/info-regarding-iota-as-178p/>

It will be a 3-4 month long DXpedition to ZD9 which could be extended by another 2-3 months bringing it to (potentially) 6+ months. The additional months could depend on PayPal donations / extra donors. Focus is going to be on CW & SSB. There will be VERY LIMITED usage of FT8. Infact, FT8 will ONLY be used on 80 & 160 meters. Bands of operation will be 10 meters to 160 meters. 1kW to monoband heavy duty vertical antennas due to Tristan da Cunha's very inhospitable weather.
